2014 DIVE TRIP UPDATES

MICRONESIA: Yap/Chuuk, March 2014

While our Palau liveaboard remains sold out, a few spaces are still available for our shore-based dive weeks in Yap and Chuuk. If you're thinking about joining us in Micronesia, please register soon. Trip registration for both Yap and Chuuk will close on January 4, 2014, when we will finalize rosters and invoices with vendors. All of our planned 2014 Micronesia expeditions are a go.

San Diego, May 2014

Join us for a weekend of diving the wrecks and kelp beds of San Diego with Pacific Swann, a six-passenger commercial dive boat located in Mission Bay, central to many popular locations. San Diego is known for many dive sites, ranging from a variety of wrecks, kelp forests, canyons, and rock outcroppings. Check out this new destination for Northern California Rainbow Divers!

Saba, June 2014

There's still time to register for our summer dive excursion to Saba, a warm-water paradise whose structural diversity is unmatched in the Caribbean. Its deep sea pinnacles, sea mounts and shallow fringing reefs will leave you marveling at the spectacular formations and variety of marine life in this protected marine park. If you are interested in joining us in Saba, please register soon! We are halfway toward our goal of 8 divers registered by January 31.

Diving For Life: Bonaire, Sept. 2014

Captain Don's Habitat is an oceanfront resort set among tropical gardens and native landscaping. Their motto, "Diving Freedom, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year", makes it an ideal location for DFL 2014. Bonaire continues to win awards internationally for the best diving destination and therefore is known as "Divers' Paradise". Come join this annual SCUBA jamboree, a long-time favorite for festive diving among friends while supporting health-related charities at the same time!

The December edition of the club's Buddy Line newsletter is available! Read about our recent dive expeditions to the breathtakingly beautiful Fiji Islands and the annual 2013 Dive For Life SCUBA jamboree in Curacao. Find out more about Rainbow Divers' planned excursion to Saba this summer and see who was elected to the 2014 NCRD Board of Directors.

Is your contact info current? If not, please take a few moments to log into the club website and check your member profile to make sure your address and phone number are up to date.
